O R D E R

16 Civ. 3895 (NRB)

The parties' letters of July 19, 2017 reveal scheduling challenges often faced in the summer months. As of the current state of the Court's preparation, oral argument does not appear to be necessary. Accordingly, the Court's Order of July 17, 2017 scheduling oral argument for August 2, 2017 is withdrawn. Should the Court conclude as it continues its consideration of the pending motions that oral argument is indeed necessary, another scheduling effort will be made.

SO ORDERED.
